Life is past for me. My poor young wife will never see her lambkin any more. I cave in. Keep the book and let me drown myself. At this moment one of the passengers appeared with the missing book. He had found it under his mattress, and now restored it with the remark: I saw you foraging in my bunk when you returned aboard at Java, and wondered what blooming tec game you was up to at the time. I found this the next day when I was making my bed, and was waiting till the owner claimed it. But when I heard the row you was making about a book, as I passed here just now, I thought I'd show it. Is it yours Yes---yes, cried Nicodemus, snatching it from the man, and hugging it..
