Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Narrative of Hydraulic Cement Mined in the Lehigh Valley: With a Description of Its Use in the Early Days Some time ago in conversation with Hon. Frank M. Trexler, I casually stated that my father, Samuel Glace, erected the first mill and manufactured Natural Cement in the Lehigh Valley in 1826, when he stated that all books on the subject stated it was at Coplay in 1864, and that if I would write a sketch of the matter it would be an interesting contribution to local history. This publication will not be simple to get started on looking at but quite entertaining to learn. It generally fails to cost an excessive amount of. You will not feel monotony at anytime of your time (that's what catalogues are for about if you ask me).
