This systematic rhetoric/reader/handbook carefully leads the student through the process of essay writing. It provides numerous sample readings - imaginative literature as well as the essay, specific guidelines on how to approach each rhetorical mode, writing assignments, and both student and professional models of completed assignments. In addition to covering nine rhetorical modes, the text includes a complete unit on the research paper and a comprehensive handbook section. Pre-reading, pre-writing, and writing exercises throughout offer guidance in the fundamentals of reading and writing. 702 pp. Englisch.
