Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Most people have used the colloquialism, What in Sam Hill? Few, however, know of his accomplishments as an entrepreneur around the turn of the 20th century. This biographical study follows the amazing life of an Empire Builder, as he associates with financiers and inventors, like J. P Morgan, Thomas Edison, Alexander Bell, Grover Cleveland, Henry Ford, Queen Marie of Romania, and the incomparable women in his life like Mary Hill, Loie Fuller and Mona Bell. His architecture and advanced design of such structures as Maryhill Museum, and his own commemorative Stonehenge, near Portland, Oregon, the Great Northern Railroad, the Hill Mansion in Seattle, the Peace Arch on the border of Washington and Canada and hard surface roads on the west coast, are just a few. The ironic subjects of this book, of course, are his connections with important people around the world, his influence after WWI, the discovery of the remains of the Pilgrim ship, Mayflower, in Jordons, England, his legitimate and illegitimate children, and finally, fifty-five years later, the discovery of an original Rembrandt portrait, dated 1634,...
