THE TOUGHEST GUY IN THE BAR

Dog Ear Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 96 pages. Dimensions: 7.9in. x 4.8in. x 0.3in. The fight was the bloodiest I have seen or been involved in. the weapons of choice were broken beer bottles. A face hit with a broken bottle bleeds a lot. I was covered in blood. One combatant, sliced across the stomach, was holding, I couldn't tell if it was his guts or the shards of the sweater he was wearing. Many nice guys go to bars for a relaxing drink or two. For some of them a drink will turn them into someone who has to show the world just how tough they are. When this happens any nice guy sitting near by has to watch what he says or the way he looks at the drinker, or he might be in for a fight. This is not limited to drinkers at the bar. There are some so called tough guys who go to bars just to find a fight and any guy with too much to drink is an easy target. However the fight starts, it's up to the bouncer to clean things up. A bouncer's normal duties are to check IDs and making sure the bar customers are having a good time. When things go bad the bouncer soon finds himself in a tangle that will end when the toughest guy in the bar prevails. The toughest guy in the bar has to be the bouncer or things could get out of hand and if that happens people could be hurt and the bar could be closed forcing people out of work. It's a tough job and the tough part falls on the bouncer to handle. Author's Biography When I was small my dad would roughhouse with my brother and me for he...
