Mountains. The everlasting hills! how calm they rise, Bold witnesses to an Almighty Hand! We gaze with longing heart and eager eyes, And feel as if short pathway might suffice From those pure regions to the heavenly land. At early dawn, when the first rays of light Play like a rose-wreath on the peaks of snow; And late when half the valley seems in night, Yet still around each pale majestic height The sun's last smile has left a crimson glow; - Then the heart longs, it calls for wings to fly, - Above all lower scenes of earth to soar, Where yonder golden clouds arrested lie, Where granite cliffs and glaciers gleam on high As with reflected light from Heaven's own door. Whence this strange spell, by thoughtful souls confest Ever in shadow of the mountains found? 'Tis the deep voice within our human breast, Which bids us seek a refuge and a...
