Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Manish Thakar, Simon Cook (illustrator). 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .For Inspector Malcolm Jordan and his partner detective Nerise Morcambe the world is about to quite literally rock! The line in the sand has been drawn the world can no longer sustain the human race in its billions. Natural resources devastated and pollution destroying the air we breathe. Science has known this fact for over a hundred years! But they also knew that our technology cannot take us up and away from the earth. So the only option is down. Burrowing like scared rabbits into the earth itself. We can sit and wait for the earth to heal and grow. A whole new world allowed to flourish over hundreds of years! But not billions of people. Just the few select millions who will produce the workers of the future. A whole new world in the citadels of peace. What science has also realised is that after hundreds of years we will need a workforce. People able to build the brave new world! A force that must be trained and moulded to obey the new regime. Each generation to be removed from the loving arms of their parents and rescheduled . Given a priority rating depending on aptitude and direction. Not knowing parents. Just the need to perform and please. Electricians, carpenters. Doctors, nurses and carers. The world would need servicing and the controlling faction must ensure obedience! But the universe needs balance. What created us is now moving toward us through billions of galaxies. With the speed of a god. The speed of creation. Something is changing on the earth. A presence that should not, cannot exist and it s growing. A mind...
